

Since the implementation of the no call program in Indiana I have been able to enjoy my evenings at home. I have not received one telemarketing call since registering for the program. My experience has been that businesses that consider me a customer have continually made these calls to my home. Some of them continued even after requesting that they stop. Case in point would be Sears. I have not done business with Sears for five years for that reason. The INDIANA LAW SHOULD NOT BE CHANGED!